RSC Chairman Myrick Announces RSC Staff Addition

(Washington, D.C.) – Today, Chairman Sue Myrick (NC-9) announced the hiring of Russ Vought, the newest addition to the staff of the Republican Study Committee (RSC). Russ will serve as the RSC's Budget Director.

Russ is currently the Policy Director for Congressman Jeb Hensarling (TX-5) and will remain in that post in a shared capacity with the RSC. Prior to working for Rep. Hensarling, Russ worked for Senator Phil Gramm (R-TX) for four years.

The RSC is a caucus of over 90 House Republicans. It is organized for the purpose of advancing a conservative fiscal and social agenda in the House of Representatives.
